Introduction

AEARU-SNU Winter Ski Camp is a 4-day recreational program held at Phoenix Hotels & Resorts (Pyeongchang*, Korea) designed for students who are currently studying at AEARU member universities who wish to learn how to ski. We encourage all students, from beginners to advanced skiers, who wish to develop skiing skills and build international network to join this exciting winter camp. The camp will consist of morning and afternoon sessions with professional ski instructors.

 Pyeongchang, a City of Nature & Sports: The 2018 Winter Olympics took place in Pyeongchang County, Gangwon Province, South Korea. The area offers wonderful outdoor activities year round, but the best time to visit is in winter, when the mountains are blanketed in snow. New York Times ranked Pyeongchang, Korea on the 35th place among ‘the 52 Must Visit Travel Destinations in 2016.’*

[The Association of East Asian Research Universities, AEARU]

: The Association of East Asian Research Universities (AEARU) is a regional organization founded in January 1996, with the goals of forming a forum for the presidents of leading research-oriented universities in East Asia and of carrying out mutual exchanges between the major universities in the region. The AEARU membership is composed of the presidents of the leading universities in five regions of East Asia: The Chinese Mainland, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, and Taiwan. Since its foundation in 1996, a total of 19 universities from these regions have become members of the association.

AEARU's activities include workshops, student summer camps, student physical competitions, and various types of international symposia. These activities are held throughout the year to promote mutual exchanges of ideas and information and to develop close bonds between the member universities.
